Indirekte Rede / Frage
einleitendes Verb in der Vergangenheit

Beispiele

direkte Aussage	Zeit in der direkten Rede		Zeit in der indirekten Rede	indirekte Aussage
He said: "I don't work."	simple present	➜	simple past	He said (that) he didn't work.
He said: "I am not working."	present progressive	➜	past progressive	He said (that) he wasn't working.
He said: "I will not work."	simple future	➜	would + infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't work..
He said: "I will not be working."	future progessive	➜	would + progressive infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't be working.
He said: "I'm not going to work."	going-to-future	➜	was/were + going to	He said (that) he wasn't going to work.
He said: "I would not work."	would	➜	would + perfect infinitive	He said (that) wouldn't have worked.
He said: "I would not be working."	would + present progressive infinitive	➜	would + perfect progressive infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't have been working.
He said: "I didn't work."	simple past	➜	past perfect	He said (that) he hadn't worked.
He said: "I was not working."	past progressive	➜	past perfect progressive	He said (that) he hadn't been working.
He said: "I haven't worked."	present perfect	➜	past perfect	He said (that) he hadn't worked.
He said: "I haven't been working."	present perfect progressive	➜	past perfect progressive	He said (that) he hadn't been working.
He said: "I hadn't worked."	past perfect	➜	past perfect	He said (that) he hadn't worked.
He said: "I hadn't been working."	past perfect progressive	➜	past perfect progressive	He said (that) he hadn't been working.
He said: "I will not have worked."	future perfect	➜	would + perfect infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't have worked.
He said: "I will not have been working."	future perfect progressive	➜	would + perfect progressive infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't have been working.
He said: "I wouldn't have worked."	would + perfect infinitive	➜	would + perfect infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't have worked.
He said: "I wouldn't have been working."	would + perfect progressive infinitive	➜	would + perfect progressive infinitive	He said (that) he wouldn't have been working.

direkte Frage				indirekte Frage
He asked: Who is ill?	Fragewort ist Subjekt	➜	➜	He asked who was ill.
He asked: What are you doing?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked what you were doing.
He asked: What is wrong?	Fragewort ist Subjekt	➜	➜	He asked what was wrong.
He asked: What are you talking about?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked what you were talking about.
He asked: Who(m) are you talking to?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked who(m) you were talking to.
He asked: With whom are you playing?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked with whom you were playing.
He asked: Why have you done that?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked why you had done that.
He asked: When will you come?	Inversion	➜	S V O ➜	He asked when you would come.
He asked: Where do you live?	Frage mit to do / Inversion	➜	S V O, to do fällt weg. ➜	He asked where you live?
He asked: Are you coming tonight?	kein Fragewort, Inversion	➜	if = ob, S V O ➜	He asked if you were (are) coming tonight.
He asked: Is she ill?	kein Fragewort, Inversion	➜	if = ob, S V O ➜	He asked if she was ill.