

A or an? 5e_a_an_01_L

a nice teacher an answer a new year a wrong answer a useful word an English book a unit an easy question an apple a nice teacher an old teacher

Use a or an. 5e_a_an_02_L

Kevin has got: a new football, an exciting book, an old table, a red apple and a uniform.

a or an ? 5e_a_an_03_L

an exercise, a uniform, a big van, an easy exercise, a blue uniform, a yellow car, an English car, an old teddy, a good idea, an answer, an empty bucket, a red blouse

Hi Dad - this is Sara ... Use a or an. 5e_a_an_04_L

I'm home from school. It's great. Miss Dougan is nice. She hasn't got a dog or a cat, but she has got a notebook. Noëlle is my new friend. She's great. Noëlle isn't an English name. It's French. She has got an old desk in her room and a notice board with a postcard from Paris. In our classroom we've got a nice plant, and I've got a new desk and an old chair.

'A' or 'an'? Use a or an. 5e_a_an_05_L

1. Look, Margie is wearing a uniform. It isn't new. It's an old uniform.
2. Martha is putting a book, an exercise book, a ruler and an empty box on the table.
3. The Lesters have got an old car. The Manners have got a big garden. The Newtons have got a new car. The Kirapalis haven't got a car.
4. "Look, I am doing a new lesson in our French book. And there is a new word in it: "crêpe". It's an easy lesson."