Mum: Let's get some souvenirs of Brighton.
Dad: Yes, that's a good idea. I haven't got any souvenirs.
Rani: OK. But let's hurry up because it's lunchtime.
Mum: Yes, OK. Look, there are some postcards over there.
Rani: Oh, can't we get any nice souvenirs?
Maggie: Yes, you are right. I don't like any of the souvenirs here.
Mum: Look, there are some nice flags over there.
Maggie: Well, some of them are OK. I like the flag with the beach on it.
Mum: I like it, too. - She buys the flag.
Rani: Now, can you see any restaurants near this shop?
Dad: There aren't any restaurants here but there are some down the street.
Maggie: Can we go to a McBigger's, please?
Mum: Can you see any Mc Bigger's then?
Maggie: Yes, I think there are some in Main Street.
Dad: No, Maggie. There is no McBigger's over there. Those are Italian restaurants.
Maggie: OK, let's go there then. That's no problem for me.
