

Adjective or adverb? 6e_adj_adv_01_L

Complete the following sentences. Fill in an adverb or an adjective.

1. Mr Farage can drive very fast with his new tractor. But he is a very careful driver when there are children on his tractor. Then he drives very slowly.
2. Phil was happy. The idea to trick Bill, was good. Joey had worked well. His plan was great. He quickly gave the signal. And a moment later Bill was wet from head to foot. He danced about wildly and shouted angrily.
3. "There is a mouse in my room," Sarah said excitedly. But her brother answered angrily. "You must go to bed quickly. First you are very slow. Then you are afraid and excited. You only want to play with your mobile for some more minutes." - "Play with my mobile for some more minutes?" Sarah asked quickly. "That is a good idea".

A careful driver? 6e_adj_adv_02_L

Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words in the brackets.

Mrs May is a good driver, but she isn't always a safe driver. She drives carefully and slowly when she's in her car, because it's a very nice car. But when Mrs May is on her bike, she doesn't ride well and so she isn't a safe cyclist. She rides along the cycle lane too quickly, and she's a terrible cyclist when she overtakes other people on their bikes. You can even say that she is the worst cyclist in town. But last week she wasn't lucky. She had an accident – a motorbike hit her nice car hard! Nobody was hurt, but Mrs May was very sad.

Phil is brilliant. 6e_adj_adv_03_L

Complete Phil's sentences with the correct form of the words in the brackets.

I'm a good runner. I can run fast. I can even run faster than my friend Paul, who is a champion. I'm usually a safe driver. On the road I always drive my car slowly and carefully. I never drive too quickly. I'm an excellent basketball player. My friends say that I'm the best basketball player of the club. I can sing very well. I'm a great singer. But I play volleyball badly. I'm an awful volleyball player. I really don't like volleyball.

Adjectives or Adverbs? 6e_adj_adv_04_L

1. This is an easy but useful exercise. I hope you can easily fill in the correct forms.
2. Peter is rather intelligent. It is really surprising that he is such a careless driver. He should drive more carefully.
3. Do the girls dance well? – No, they all dance badly. Only Susan is a good dancer and a very pretty girl. She is always well dressed.
4. Does your father smoke? – Yes, he usually smokes cigarettes.
5. Jo has gone to school regularly and now he speaks English perfectly.
6. Jack is not bad at French, but he does his homework very slowly. But when he wants to go swimming, he is quick.
7. She drank the milk quickly and said that it tasted good.
8. The young lady looked beautiful in her new outfit.
9. Does she feel happy at her new school? – Of course she does, but she doesn't take her English lesson seriously.
10. It is very hot today. The meat in the fridge cannot be fresh for long.
11. He was very angry when he looked at me.
12. He talked to his son excitedly.
13. When the burglar heard the noise he turned round quickly and looked furiously at the policeman. He looked dangerous at that moment.
14. This cake looks delicious but it tastes awful.
15. At first the story sounded old to us, but in the end it was new and we felt very happy.
16. The dog was lying quietly in the sun. When I touched it, it felt warm and soft.
17. Rachel has a quiet voice. She speaks quietly.
18. Peter is bad at tests. So he often writes them badly.
19. Susan can do her French homework easily.
20. My mother is not a good cook. She doesn't cook well.
21. My friend is not a careful driver. He often does not drive carefully.
22. I like fast cars. Sometimes I drive too fast.

Adjective or Adverb? 6e_adj_adv_05_L

1. The Romans fought cleverly against the stupid Britons.
2. The Romans built good roads.
3. But they didn't make beautiful jewellery.
4. And they couldn't play music well.
5. But they lived happily in England for years.
6. At the Welsh coast you can find wonderful little villages.
7. These villages are carefully kept like at thousand years ago.
8. The old houses are now full of interesting things.
9. Have you lately visited one of these villages?
10. You can buy expensive souvenirs.
11. Their evening meals smell nice.
12. The last meals are cooked exactly at 8 o'clock.
13. My father paid the bill quickly.

Adjectives or Adverbs?

6e_adj_adv_06_L

1. My aunt sings badly. But my mother sings worse.
2. I stopped the car quickly.
3. Bob said sadly, 'I cannot come with you.'
4. The policeman turned round slowly.
5. At the quiz-show the candidate answered correctly.
6. I usually do my homework very slowly.
7. My sister can play the piano perfectly.
8. I locked my front door firmly.
9. 'What was that noise?' Rachel said angrily.
10. 'I got a bad mark at German today,' Alan said unhappily.
11. 'Don't shout!' said Mr Smith excitedly.
12. 'You broke my model train,' Daniel said sadly.
13. 'Show me the letter,' Peter said worriedly.
14. 'Don't come nearer,' the policeman said nervously.
15. She likes loud music. She often plays her guitar loudly. Then her mother is angry and shouts angrily at her. 'Can't you play that thing quietly? It's never quiet in this house.'
16. Mark can paint beautifully. His father bought his most beautiful pictures.
17. Alan loves exciting stories. And he can tell stories very excitingly.
18. He is not a fast worker, but sometimes he works very fast.
19. Susan answers questions stupidly and makes stupid mistakes.
20. If you do your homework badly you get bad marks.
21. He wasn't happy in London, but he lives happily in Liverpool now.
22. My uncle drives dangerously.
23. Our teacher cannot explain things interestingly.
24. Mr Grant can play cards very well, but I can play better.

Adjective or Adverb?

6e_adj_adv_07_L

1. He was so deep in thought that he didn't notice me.
2. She looked quickly through the book because she didn't have much time.
3. He watched him closely while he was repairing the car.
4. Everything seemed to go well and there were no problems.
5. The fire was burning brightly.
6. He was so deep in debt that he couldn't pay me.
7. The party went so badly that everybody left early.
8. If you want to play with us you must play fair.
9. He loved his parents dearly.
10. You must have a break. You worked so hard last week.
11. How long did you stay? You look so tired.
12. The way he found was right, I don't know where he went wrong.