

Sara asks Tom some questions. 6e_indi_01_L

Wandle die indirekten Fragen in direkte um.

She wants to know:

"Where do you go to school?"

"When do you get up in the morning?"

"At what time do you usually have breakfast?"

"Does your father drive you to school every morning?"

"Do you speak French?"

"Does your father work in Bristol?"

"What do your friends do as sports?"

"Why don't you like to play football?"

Tom asks Sara some questions.

6e_indi_02_L

Tom asks where her school is.

Sara answers (that) her school is in Oxford Street.

Tom asks when she goes to school.

Sara answers (that) she goes to school at half past seven.

Tom asks what she has for breakfast.

Sara answers (that) she usually has cornflakes.

Tom asks if she takes the bus to go to school.

Sara answers (that) she doesn't, she usually goes there by bike.

Tom asks if she speaks German.

Sara answers (that) she doesn't, but she speaks Spanish.

Tom asks if her mother works.

Sara answers (that) she does, that her mother works as a lawyer.

Tom asks if she plays badminton.

Sara answers (that) she doesn't, that she plays volleyball.