

Simple past or past progressive? 6e_past_sim_prog_01_L

Theresa and Boris to wanted to play a trick on their friends.

While the boys and girls were talking and playing in the garden, Theresa went into the house and ran upstairs. She looked out of the window. Some of her friends were drinking lemonade, some were dancing. Theresa smiled and opened a packet of flour ('Mehl'). Then she gave a signal to Boris. He turned on the water for the sprinkler. But why was there no water? Oh, no! Harry was standing on the hose. He was explaining something to Beverly.

Simple past or past progressive? 6e_past_sim_prog_02_L

1. He was watching TV, when his friend arrived.
2. We were reading the Sunday papers when our friends called in.
3. The gardener was digging a hole when he found an old coin.
4. The bus crashed because the driver was using his mobile phone.
5. The aeroplane was flying far too low when it hit a tree.
6. I was washing my hands when the telephone rang.
7. She was sitting at the table when the children came home.
8. Mary was ironing and Martin was repairing his bike.
9. They all were having breakfast when I entered the room.
10. My aunt was walking in the park when I met her.
11. Peter was swimming in the sea when it began to rain.
12. What were you doing when I knocked at the door?
13. What was she cooking when the doorbell rang?
14. Where were you driving when you ran out of petrol?
15. Mary was wearing a new hat when the wind blew it away.
16. She was playing tennis when she hurt her leg.

Simple past or past progressive? 6e_past_sim_prog_03_L

1. He was playing football when he heard about the accident.
2. The old lady was knitting a pullover when the lights went out.
3. She was talking to her friends when her husband fell over a tree.
4. They were reading a newspaper when the baby began to cry.
5. We were flying over the mountains when the weather began to change.
6. John was working on a new book when the manager called in.
7. The burglar was climbing out of the window when the police arrived.
8. The car was empty but the engine was running.
9. I was alone in the house because my father was working in the garden.
10. Who was he serving when you saw him in the restaurant?
11. He fell down while he was repairing the roof of his house.
12. I started a fire at 6 p.m. It was still burning when Tom came home from work.
13. She was writing a letter when suddenly the alarm-clock went off.
14. Peter was playing his guitar when suddenly somebody threw a bottle through the window.
15. I was just opening a letter when suddenly the wind blew it out of my hands.
16. The burglar was opening the safe when he heard footsteps.
17. What did she find when she was looking for her passport?
18. When I was crossing the road I slipped on a banana skin.

PAST TENSE: simple or progressive?

6e_past_sim_prog_04_L

1. Yesterday I went to Dusseldorf with my parents.
2. When Peter arrived the teacher was writing something on the blackboard.
3. John was having a bath when the telephone rang. He got out of the bath and went to the door.
4. On Sundays he always wears a suit and carries an umbrella.
5. He was playing the guitar outside the house when suddenly someone opened a window and threw some water at him.
6. He suddenly noticed that he was walk in the wrong direction.
7. The boys were smoking a cigarette when they suddenly heard their father's footsteps.
8. When I heard that knock I went to the door and opened it, but I didn't see anybody because I wasn't wearing my glasses.
9. I was swimming in the lake when the accident happened.
10. Yesterday my father polished our car in the garage.
11. I watched a video every night last week.
12. My grandfather played tennis until he was 70.
13. He was crossing the motorway when a big lorry hit him.
14. My sister was just writing an email when the lights went out.
15. I cut my finger when I was cutting a Frankfurter.
16. We were just having something to eat when the fire started.
17. When the burglar saw the policeman he ran out of the house and jumped behind our bushes.

PAST TENSE: simple or progressive?

6e_past_sim_prog_05_L

One night three men were sitting around a table in a nice pub. Suddenly the door opened and a man with a black mask and a pistol came in. He wanted all the money. But the clever landlord took a bottle and smashed it over the man's head. He dropped the pistol and sank to the floor. When the police arrived the man was still on the floor. The policemen had to carry him out. They pushed him into their car and drove to the police station.

Past: simple – progressive?

6e_past_sim_prog_06_L

1. When we came through the customs, we saw hundreds of people who were waiting for friends and relatives.
2. I looked into the crowd and tried to spot my sister.
3. At last I saw her. She was wearing a red blouse and was standing next to the exit.
4. When she saw me she waved and called my name.
5. All around us people were laughing and crying with relief at seeing their relatives safe again.
6. 'We were very worried about you when we saw the news on TV,' she said.
7. 'It was impossible to escape sooner,' I said. 'Yesterday I drove to the airport and waited for nine hours, but all the flights to England were cancelled. There were so many people there, and a lot of them didn't get a ticket at all. I was one of the lucky few.'

Simple past or past progressive? Put in the correct form.

6e_past_sim_prog_07_L

1. Nigel was listening to a CD when Gary arrived.
2. When Sara got there, Monica was talking to Nigel and Gary.
3. When Amber met them, Sara and Monica were looking at Gary's new DVD.
4. Mrs May was sitting in the restaurant when Mr May found her.
5. At 4 o'clock Mrs and Mr May went home and had tea.
6. While the boys were playing football, it started to rain.
7. When Amber came into her room, her brother was sleeping on her bed.
8. When Mrs Thatcher arrived late for school, her pupils were waiting for her in the classroom.
9. When Mr May looked into Nigel's room, Nigel wasn't sleeping. He was reading a comic.
10. While Sara and Amber went for a walk with Nigel, Emma was trying to phone them.

Simple past or past progressive? 06e_sp_pp_08_L

Example: While the children were playing football, it started to rain.

1. When Mrs May arrived late for school, the children were waiting for her in the classroom.
2. When Mrs Cameron came up, David was playing with his toy cars. He was not sleeping.
3. Theresa told the doctor that she was feeling very sick, while he was examining her.
4. What was Lisa doing, when her friends arrived?
5. While Charles was eating his third piece of cake, Mr Johnson was making tea.
6. When Lisa and her friends arrived, Nigel and Mr Johnson were lying under the car. They wanted to repair the exhaust pipe.
7. While Theresa and Nigel were carrying the chairs into the house, Boris went to have a cold drink. Theresa and Nigel were not happy about him.
8. Theresa had a good idea, while Nigel was taking photos of her.