

1. Infinitiv und Objekt e7_inf_obj_01

Change the sentences. Use an infinitive and an object.

1. We do not want that Peter knows where we are.
2. I want that Susan learns Spanish.
3. We expected that our visitor brought us a present.
4. My mother loved that my father gave her some flowers on Saturday.
5. My father liked that my brother cleaned his car.
6. I helped that my friends could open their car.
7. I wanted that she ran away.
8. We want that visitors do not feed the animals in this zoo.
9. They wanted that he opened the door.
10. My uncle wanted that I come to his new house in Spain.
11. Bob wanted that his wife ironed his shirt.
12. Our English teacher wants that we learn all the irregular verbs.
13. The inspector expected that the thief gave him his revolver.
14. My mother wanted that the tourist guide showed her the Tower of London.
15. Our team manager doesn't want that we lose our matches.
16. The Queen wanted that her husband went to the Tower and that he collected the Crown Jewels.
17. My parents want that I do well at school.
18. City fans want that Liverpool loses the next match.
19. The Germans expect that their team wins the World Cup.
20. The lion wanted that the tourists came closer.
21. Our neighbour doesn't want that our dog jumps over the fence.
22. The bank employee wanted that I opened a new account (Konto).
23. The man at the garage wanted that the woman left her car keys.
24. The man from the German Car Club wanted that I became a member.
25. The man at the door wanted that I bought his magazine.
26. Father X-mas wants that we wait for him every year.
27. He expected that she kissed him goodbye.
28. She liked that I brought her chocolate.
29. I didn't want that my sister read my book.
30. I do not want that you forget all this in a few minutes.