

1. Infinitiv und Objekt e7_inf_obj_01_L

Change the sentences. Use an infinitive and an object.

1. We don't want Peter to know where we are.
2. I want Susan to learn Spanish.
3. We had expected our visitor to bring us a present.
4. My mother loved my dad to give her some flowers on Saturday.
5. My father liked my brother to clean his car.
6. I helped my friends open their car.
7. I wanted her to run away.
8. We do not want visitors to feed the animals in this zoo.
9. They wanted him to open the door.
10. My uncle wanted me to come to his new house in Spain.
11. Bob wanted his wife to iron his shirt.
12. Our English teacher wants us to learn all the irregular verbs.
13. The inspector expected the thief to give him his revolver.
14. My mother wanted the guide to show her the Tower of London.
15. Our team manager doesn't want us to lose our games.
16. The Queen wanted her husband to go to the Tower and collect the Crown Jewels.
17. My parents want me to do well at school.
18. City fans want Liverpool to lose the next match.
19. The Germans expect their team to win the World Cup.
20. The lion wanted the tourists to come closer.
21. Our neighbour doesn't want our dog to jump over the fence.
22. The bank employee wanted me to open a new account.
23. The man at the garage wanted the woman to leave her car keys.
24. The man from the German Car Club wanted me to become a member.
25. The man at the door wanted me to buy his magazine.
26. Father Christmas wants us to wait for him every year.
27. He expected her to kiss him goodbye.
28. She liked me to bring her chocolate.
29. I didn't want my sister to read my book.
30. I don't want you to forget all this in a few minutes.