

Fill in the right word. 5_indef_01_L a few - a lot of - all - any - every - everybody - everything - many - much - some

1. Peter is very hungry. He is eating all the bananas.
2. It is Sara's birthday. Every friend brings her a present.
3. Rani likes to read. She has got many / a lot of books.
4. Phil doesn't like books. He has got many / a lot of comics.
5. At the Neandertal-Museum everything is interesting.
6. Danny has got a few new books about horses.
7. James wants to pay. He asks the shop-assistant: How much is that?
8. Mrs Lester gives the children some sweets. Now everybody is happy.
9. Mr. Colder at the greengrocer's: Have you got any strawberries?

Fill in the right word. 5_indef_02_L

everything - any - no - something - every - some - a lot of (much) - all - everybody - a few

1. Everybody is happy.
2. Peter is rich. He has got a lot of money.
3. Every child likes to go to school.
4. There are no comics on the table.
5. Peter reads a lot. He knows everything.
6. Have you got any new books about horses?
7. Something is wrong. The car doesn't start.
8. Billy has got some new DVDs.
9. All the children are going into their class-room.
10. Only a few children don't like school.