

“of-genitive” or “s-genitive”? 6e_gen_01

1. Peter/dog hasn't come home.
2. Do you know the height/tower?
3. The policeman checked the bikes/children.
4. Do you know the excursion/date?
5. the police must find the green car/driver.
6. The Farage/shop is in Winston Road.
7. The irregular verbs are on the last page/English book.
8. Mr Cameron drove the children home at the party/end.
9. The cars/Mays are blue and red.
10. The thieves/car was a red Ferrari.

Use genitives. (A gehört B bzw. A ist B zugeordnet)

6e_gen_02

A	B
the surgery	the doctor
the dog	my friend
the rooms	our school
the entrance	the hotel
the units	the English book
the books	the girls

Genitives 6e_gen_03

Combine the two words by using a genitive.

- | | | |
|---------------------|---------------------|----------------------|
| 1. bill - customers | 2. car – wheels | 3. London - parks |
| 4. toys - children | 5. football - boys | 6. passport - people |
| 7. house - door | 8. lipstick - women | 9. uncle - my father |

Genitives 6e_gen_04

Combine the two words by using a genitive.

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. toilets - men | 2. mountain – top | 3. London - streets |
| 4. house - grand-parents | 5. rabbits - girls | 6. music - young people |
| 7. computer – monitor | 8. car – driver | 9. aunt - my mother |