

If – Clause

6e_ifcl_01_L

1. If I find your book I will* telephone you.
2. If you wash this glass it will be clean.
3. If you wait for a moment I will come with you.
4. If he stands up my mother will get a seat.
5. If you hear from Tom will you call me?
6. If I take my shirt off I will catch a cold.
7. If your car does not start, I will take the bus.
8. If you cut the grass I will give you ten pounds.
9. I will look into my address book and if I find his number I will call you.
10. If the traffic lights are red all the cars will stop.
11. If she buys a car she will use it every day.
12. If Jack does not help we will do it without him.
13. If he does not run away the police will catch him.
14. If the rain stops we will go for a walk.
15. If you can look after the baby Ann will be happy.
16. If I tell you a secret you will promise not to tell your sister?
17. If you don't believe me ask your parents.
18. If he doesn't like these jeans I will get him a different pair.
19. If we buy the house now it will be cheaper.
20. If you do not learn English you will not get the job of a pilot.
21. If you give me your watch I will give you mine.
22. If they don't pay me I will go away.
23. If my father cleans the house we will clean his car.
24. If you look into the sun without wearing glasses you will become blind.
25. If you travel to Spain I will come with you.
26. If you can do this exercise without mistakes you are good at English.

*Es sind natürlich auch die Kurzformen korrekt: I'll, you'll etc., won't.

If – Clause

6e_ifcl_02_L

1. If it rains we will* go to the cinema.
2. If you read this letter you will understand Peter much better.
3. If he saves enough money he will fly to New York.
4. If Mary loses her money she will not know what to do.
5. If Bob does not pass his exam he will make it again next year.
6. If he does it again I will punish him.
7. I will cook if you come home early?
8. If she doesn't find her glasses you will read the article for her?
9. If you drink too much beer tonight you will not be fit tomorrow.
10. If we take away those toys she will cry.
11. If you turn to the next page you will see a nice picture of London.
12. If we look out of the window we will see a nice car.
13. If you go to the doctor he will give you some medicine.
14. If they tell me the correct answer they will win the first prize.
15. If she knocks at the door I will open it for her.
16. If you move to Liverpool I will write to you.
17. If the boys follow me they will not get lost.
18. If we go to the party uninvited he will not talk to us.
19. If you don't pay him he will not work for you.
20. If she sits down I will make her a cup of coffee.

*Es sind natürlich auch die Kurzformen korrekt: I'll, you'll etc., won't.

If – Clause

6e_ifcl_03_L

1. If you don't give me your pen I will* not sign this cheque.
2. If I see you I will give you a lift.
3. If they walk across that field the bull will chase them.
4. If he eats all this he will be sick later.
5. If people read in bad light they ruin their eyes.
6. Someone will steal your car if you leave the garage door open.
7. What will happen if my parachute doesn't open?
8. If he doesn't go away I will call the police.
9. If your dog bites me again I will be very angry.
10. If my mum hears about this she will be mad at me.
11. If you put on the kettle I will make us some tea.
12. If they don't leave at once they will miss their flight.
13. If Peter doesn't come now they will not let him in.
14. If I lend you ten pounds when will you pay me back?
15. If the river rises any higher we will have to leave our house.
16. If she doesn't work hard she will not be very successful.
17. If we don't drive carefully we will have an accident soon.
18. If he works longer today we will not go out tonight.
19. If the customer doesn't like our food we will throw him out.

*Es sind natürlich auch die Kurzformen korrekt: I'll, you'll etc., won't.