

Questions tags                    06_que_tags_01_L

Ask a question and use question tags

1. Theresa can swim, can't she?
2. She has got a new swimsuit, hasn't she?
3. She went to the swimming pool yesterday, didn't she?
4. There Theresa met her friends, didn't she?
5. But Theresa and her friends didn't swim together, did they?
6. There was no water in the swimming pool, was there?
7. Their parents were waiting for them outside, weren't they?
8. They took the girls home, didn't they?

Questions tags                    06_que_tags_02_L

Ask a question and use question tags

1. They can play football now, can't they?
2. Mr. Farage always forgets his shoes, doesn't he?
3. Maggie worked in London, didn't she?
4. Mrs. Cameron always goes shopping on Friday afternoons, doesn't she?
5. Yesterday he played tennis with his friend Boris, didn't he?
6. This morning Nigel wanted to stay in bed, didn't he?
7. Today Boris helps Nigel with his homework, doesn't he?
8. Yesterday Boris helped Nigel with his homework, didn't he?

Questions tags                    06_que_tags_03_L

Ask a question and use question tags

1. He may not drink cola, may he?
2. I can't go to school, can he?
3. My father can speak English, can't he?
4. I can eat a Hamburger, can't I?
5. She will do her homework, won't she?
6. We can't play outside, can we?
7. They shouldn't go to school, should they?
8. They have got new bikes, haven't they?
9. All the candles are on the cake, aren't they?