

Would / should 06_would_should_01_L

1. That shirt is not very nice. I should take another one.
2. Would you like a glass of cola?
3. Would you be so nice and walk my dog?
4. I wish he would not make so much noise with his lawn mower.
5. What are you doing here? You should make your homework.
6. You should change this car. It is too big.
7. We should/could spend this money on our holidays.
8. Would you please help me with this?
9. Nobody should know where I will spend my summer holidays.
10. You should follow your father's advice.
11. Would you wait for me, please?
12. I found these keys. What can I do? - You should/could take them to the police.
13. You must stop smoking here! - OK, but there should be a no-smoking notice in this room!
14. Would you pass me the salt, please?
15. For the next test I should learn all the new Chinese words.

Nigel's birthday party 06_would_should_02_L

It's Nigel's birthday next week and his friends Boris and David are preparing the party for him. Now they're talking about what is to do. Use could/should/shall.

- Boris           Shall I ask my parents if we can have the party in our garage?
David           Shall I buy the drinks?
Boris           You should buy them in the supermarket. There they are the cheapest. Ask your dad if he could take them to our garage.
David           I could ask my mum to make a lot of biscuits.
Boris           Where should we buy crisps and peanuts?
David           Should we invite all the girls of our form?
Boris           We should only invite Lisa, Maggie and Theresa.
David           The girls could make a Caesar's salad.
Boris           What present should we buy?
David           We could buy a new bell for his bike.
Boris           OK, that's all, so we should start the preparations at once.