

Adjective or adverb? 7e_adj_adv_01_L

Copy and fill in the correct form:

1. This is an easy exercise.
I hope you can easily write down the answer.
2. Peter is a good driver.
He always drives very carefully.
3. The girls are very good dancers.
They dance very well.
4. Judith is a nice girl.
She always dresses very nicely.

5. Jim is an intelligent boy.
He does his homework quickly.
6. Mary is a slow eater.
But she plays basketball well.
7. Mary got a super birthday card.
She sat down, read it and then answered it happily.
8. Onions (Zwiebeln) have a strong smell.
My mother used them in the kitchen and our house smelt awful.
9. It was an easy job for my father to repair my bike.
He easily repaired my bike.

A letter to a football star 7e_adj_adv_02_L

Adjectives and adverbs – put in the correct forms.

Dear Ronaldo,

Two weeks ago I saw you in the match against Liverpool and I admired you at once. You look better than any other football star and you play so well. You seem to be the best player I've ever seen. Your tricks are more beautiful than those of all the other famous football players. You're really the best. Oh, Ronaldo, I would like to be closer to you than any other fan in the world. I think you play wonderfully and your shots are more dangerous than those of the other kickers. But the saddest thing is that we don't know each other. I'm very unhappy.

Love, Theresa

Adjective or adverb? 7e_adj_adv_03_L

Use an adjective or an adverb.

1. Maggie looked nice at the school disco. Her two friends looked happily at her.
2. Nigel nervously tasted the meal that he had cooked. He was right – it tasted not good.
3. Boris put his hand carefully into the water. It felt very hot.
4. The lesson was very boring, so the students got uninterested of it quite fast.
5. The Italian pasta tasted good. Maggie liked their tasty smell.